

Deputy Head of Primary

We are looking for an enthusiastic, innovative, dynamic teacher with a growth mindset and high expectations to join our Primary team. The successful candidate will join an outstanding department, focused on creating the best environments for our learners to grow and develop academically, emotionally, physically and socially.

Our Deputy Head of Primary teaches one of our Year 6 classes, on a 50% timetable; the other 50% of lessons are taught by Secondary specialist teachers. Experience of FS and KS1 will also be an advantage as we look to develop our school's biggest growth area.

The English College, Dubai is an established, independent, and co-educational school which opened in 1992. We offer a curriculum that accesses the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) for FS1 and FS2, then addresses the National Curriculum of England from Year 1 to Year 13, with courses leading to GCSE and GCE A level examinations.

The English College is a well-resourced school with great facilities and a reputation for academic excellence; we place the success of each and every student at the centre of our mission. The English College is a family, and with our fantastic students, dedicated and motivated team of excellent teachers and support staff, it truly is a wonderful place to learn and teach.

Currently 760 students with an increasing roll, our student body is both international and energising. This creates a vibrant learning environment with diversity and tolerance at its core. Students maintain strong bonds with The English College, Dubai long after leaving and our links with the local community are clear.

The English College, Dubai has a well-established pastoral system. Our teachers form an integral part of maintaining our high standards. The English College, Dubai provides innovative, inclusive provision for our students and plans for expansion and further development are an on-going priority for the school.
